Today we meet Morecambe FC, can I wish their new Directors, Manager and long suffering supporters the warmest of welcomes to the Mangata Developments Stadium and a safe journey home.

Well, it's fair to say we've started the season in the manner we'd all perhaps hoped for and as I said in my last programme notes, any fears I might have had in regard to us not being competitive within the division were minimised within the first two weeks. Our last two games have seen us travel away to Hartlepool United and Sutton United and though we didn't quite take the points our performances deserved, it has shown me again that after half a dozen games it's time for our whole club to look up and picture what can be achieved with a tad more investment, ambition and belief.

Now is not the time for us to fear failure by looking down, now is the time to look forward, look up and ensure we do not stand still. Since our relegation two seasons ago and our subsequent promotion I have, as you are aware, been looking to build our future off the park, whilst asking Luke and Charlie Hunter to put together a slightly younger, more mobile and more competitive squad in key areas.

Put simply, after being battered 4-0 at Maidstone United last season, we all knew it was sink or swim time and we accepted that we needed to change mindsets, shape, add positivity, more legs, nous and more energy into our starting XI, and perhaps get rid of some older negativity by lowering our average age.

In the summer after going up we needed to add more quality to the squad and further additions as the days of a 16 man squad are over and we knew we would need competition for places in all areas. As the gaffer and Charlie got on with their recruitment, I got on firstly with improving the budget and secondly along with my architect Paul Beech, completed my stadium visuals, designs, build spec regarding the South Stand and away fan zone and got ourselves to the planning stage.

All of which means I can, with people's support, get our stadium and facility built and up to EFL standard by late September 2026. That said, there is no point in me producing further investment, for a stadium and facility with all the community add-ons that's up to EFL standard, if the team are still a mile away from getting close to the play-offs.

So it's now down to myself, Luke, Charlie, my loyal staff, dressing room and partners, to get on with marrying up what are two very big projects. One is all about recruitment and the other incorporates a rather large project build.

Both are equally as important as the other, but the building blocks for both are now quietly being put in place and that means we are well on the way to achieving the progress and impetus, that I knew I would need to justify any further personal investment. When I first walked through the door back in 1999, I dreamt of one day building this town a four stand, four sided stadium, but in truth I was just 36 years of age and perhaps dreaming a tad too big?

When I do occasionally look back at my old designs, those small stands I once felt were going to be so impressive were nothing more than pre-fabricated tin stands that seat around 200 to 300 that you see at most lower level non league grounds. Those tin type stands are everywhere nowadays and though they are functional, they are as ugly as sin.... experience though has now taught me so much and I know that my type of ground upgrades and projects can take me a lifetime to build, so sorry about that haha.

That said, I now hope to deliver to you, to our residents, to our town and community something far, far better than I could ever have imagined back in 1999. In truth it's why I need to keep hammering home my stadia improvement message to HBC through my programme notes. Why? Because my planning submission now sits with the Planning Officers and now needs across the board support and my partners now need to seize the opportunity in front of of us.

It was not always easy to dream big around here or even think big when we sat within the Southern Eastern Division, Ryman North Division or Ryman Premier League. Not when our crowds back then were minimal and we only had 150 to 200 supporters at best watching us even on a good day.

In truth some of my family and friends even found my ambition amusing or bemusing with most doubting me and that was a tad hurtful. Thankfully the doubters around me have now gone and their opposition to my investment has quietened a tad and I have bit by bit over the last 27 seasons somehow found a way to bring partners and sponsors onside while still making the step by step improvements needed.

As I write these notes, we now sit at non league football's top table once again and I hope we are getting ourselves ready to go the final furlong over the coming years. To do that I'll still need the doubters, my family, my loyal staff, you loyal fans, my partners and collaborators and the hard working people around me who trust to spur me on. In truth to even push for the EFL we'll genuinely need all of our local partners like HBC, EBTC, AFC, AWFC, plus the Football Foundation, Stadia Improvement Fund, our sponsors and more recently local companies like Griggs and Mangata to stay with us.

To find a way forward for this football club, I feel we will always need a local Chairman, need local Councillors, need the HBC Executive and of course we'll need great partners and cross party support. If we can add to a growing support base and add to our 'old school' supporters who have been patient and given me the time to put in our building blocks..... Then trust me now is the time to push on and build the stadium, now is the time to invest in and reboot the dressing room.

2026 is the year to complete something not only very special but something worth waiting for and something I've given most of my life to.... Future proofing has always been a difficult balancing act but it was a necessary evil for me to ensure I did not neglect the clubs infrastructure, processes, procedures, checks and balances.

It's why I've always tried to make realistic decisions based on personal investment, outside investment, partner involvement and on improving things both on and off the field of play, but always with one eye on the future.

As I've said for more than 25 years, I've been very fortunate to have had great staff, great players, great managers, loyal friends, great partners and so many willing collaborators, and even when the finances were tight, it was only through good decision making, a bit of luck and good managers making our teams hard to beat, did we even begin to create the club, the facility and the infrastructure that you see today.

This season we have improved our first team budget once again and that means we went looking for a more expansive type player and football team. That said we could only do that because Wrexham won promotion last season and we received some financial remuneration from our Jacob Mendy sale to them. We were also very happy that Sorba Thomas was sold in this transfer window, as we are to receive a reasonable sell on fee from his sale from Huddersfield Town to Stoke City.

Those two unexpected windfalls have allowed us to be more proactive this summer, as we looked at a slightly different player profile and it means we've brought in the quality of Jeff King, Joe Newton, Aaron Henry, Junior Dixon, Luke Norris, Tom White, Zak Brunt, Lewis Richardson and Fin Herrick to add to what was already a very talented squad that we began putting together at the beginning of last season.

I'm too long in the tooth to be making silly predictions on what might lay ahead for us after just half a dozen games. Nor would I put myself, Luke or the club under pressure by being another one of those silly voices on social media like some other owners and Chairmen I could name. Thankfully for you guys, it means you only have to hear my messaging where they cannot be misconstrued or misinterpreted, which means me sticking to my 'old school' programme notes, an occasional club interview or being part of a simple fans Q and A.

In truth I'm more comfortable with those mediums as it suits my personality but still allows me to reach out to the supporters and people I care about. All I ask this season from my family, friends and our supporters both old and new, is that you turn up both home and away whenever you can and when you do, bring with you a positive disposition.

When on your socials please try to keep your messaging positive (which isn't always easy straight after a game) especially if we've underperformed and finally I ask that you understand our fan base is still not huge, yes it is growing but please stay realistic as our fan base growth will be relevant in the years ahead.

At this level we are by definition still very much an underdog club, and by anyone's standards we are judged by having one of the lowest fan base in the division and if that's the reality of where we must start the next phase of our journey. So let's embrace it, let's enjoy it, let's bloody a few noses this season and let's find new ways to grow ourselves.

For me our future must lay in our togetherness, lay in us building on our commercial success, on increasing our sponsorship portfolio and lies in me completing the ground improvements like we have been doing each and every season for more than two decades.

Our future must rely on us not ever turning in on each other when things go belly up at times, which you never did when we were relegated just two seasons ago so once again a big thank you to one and all. In truth I truly believe we only got promoted just a year later because you all stuck with me and allowed me to block out the wider noise and make good on my promotion promises.

Our future together now lies in me building the club as if we are already in the EFL, in keeping the many partnerships I've built over the last 25 years in place and in keeping the long standing collaborations with AFC, AWFC, HBC and EBTC bubbling.

Our playing future must also rely on us increasing our commercial activities, increasing our revenue streams, increasing our crowds and finding those additional sponsorship opportunities wherever they present themselves.

Our opponents today are Morecambe FC and they certainly do not need a business lesson from me after the way their club and supporters have been treated in recent years by an imposter of an owner who clearly should NEVER, NEVER, NEVER have passed the fit and proper director and owners test, as overseen by the inimitable Rick Parry and the EFL.....that said, please don't start me off again about Mr Rick Parry haha.

It just leaves me to say, I'm very pleased Morecambe Football Club and their loyal fans are here as our guests today. You are all most welcome and this is the first time our two clubs have ever played each other. We hope after your summer from hell, you can now look to the future with optimism when all had perhaps seemed lost just a month ago.

We can all see there is a long way to go for Morecambe FC and their supporters, but I'm sure they would say any successful onward journey has to start somewhere and I hope theirs began when they beat Altrincham 2-1 just a few short weeks ago.

Anyway, back to today, let's hope for an open attacking game and may the best team win.

Take care

Danny

Good afternoon, firstly I would like to welcome Ashvir Singh Johal his Staff and Players to Mangata Developments Stadium for this afternoons National League fixture.

I can imagine it's been an absolute world wind since Ashvir has taken the reigns, having to settle a club and recruit a team that can be competitive in the division without any form of pre-season and contact time.

You can clearly see they have been working tirelessly on their game and having watched them they have some real quality personnel that can hurt you on any given day.

We will need to respect the position they currently find themselves in and have an energy and tempo to our play that causes them problems.

We backed up our dogged performance away on Saturday vs Hartlepool with a much needed three points on the road against Sutton united on Wednesday evening.

I genuinely felt we had some very impressive spells in the game and showed a real dominance especially in the first half. The negative is we didn't get the goal return our play deserved.

I expressed my thoughts at half time to the group and in fairness they showed the ruthlessness we required to get the three points.

The influence from the offensive players in Abdul, Erico and Lewis Richardson was evident for all to see, the quality we possess on the pitch and most definitely on the bench has allowed for us to take maximum points from drawing positions.

I keep telling the dressing room how important everyone is going to be this season, they need to have the mindset of "putting everything in and taking nothing out"

That will determine how successful we can be as a group.

We now have three home games on the bounce and have the ambitions to continue the unbeaten run we find ourselves on, with us recording maximum points in all three matches.

There has to be a real focus in every fixture we face and we need to continue to build on what has been a positive start, we can see a growth in our play and the progression has been great but now we go again and really start to fine tune certain aspects so we can become an even more rounded side.

Lastly I want to thank the travelling Wood Army, your support has been immense and I'm grateful we could get two big results on the road.

Now I ask you all to get right behind the boys and give them the energy to go and get the three points.

Be Loud be proud.

Enjoy the Game.

Luke

Manager: Ashvir SINGH JOHAL

Ashvir Singh Johal began coaching at Leicester City before roles at Wigan Athletic, Como, and Notts County. In August, he was appointed head coach of the Shrimps following the club's takeover by the Panjab Warriors consortium. At 30, he became the youngest manager in England's top five divisions and the first Sikh to lead a professional English club. Johal quickly rebuilt the squad, guiding Morecambe to a dramatic 2-1 win over Altrincham in his debut match.

SHOOTING STARS

Football historian LEIGH EDWARDS profiles ten post-war Morecambe goalscoring favourites

RAY CHARNLEY

England international forward Ray Charnley was a favourite during two spells at Christie Park. Locally born, he joined Morecambe from Bolton-le-Sands in September 1954 and was leading marksman as they reached the Lancashire Combination Cup final in 1956-57. He moved to Blackpool in May 1957 and was top scorer on seven occasions, joining Preston North End in December 1967. After spells at Wrexham and Bradford PA, he returned to Morecambe in June 1970 and netted 98 goals in 177 games overall before leaving in May 1972. He became a painter and decorator in Blackpool and died in November 2009.

KEITH BORROWDALE

Long-serving centre-forward Keith Borrowdale holds Morecambe's all-time goalscoring record. Moving to Christie Park from Chorley in August 1958, he netted a record 52 goals during the 1961-62 campaign when the Shrimps reached the FA Cup third round. He was an important figure as Morecambe won the Lancashire Combination title four times, including the 'double' in 1966-67 and 1967-68, netting 289 goals in 454 games overall before becoming Wren Rovers player-boss in June 1968. Later rejoining Morecambe as coach during Mick Hogarth's reign as manager, he remained local until his death in March 2022.

ROY FAWCETT

Flying winger Roy Fawcett was an influential figure as Morecambe reached the FA Cup third round in 1961-62. Signing professional for Blackpool in March 1955, he made his First Division debut in their 1-0 defeat at Cardiff City 11 months later but had limited top-flight opportunities behind the legendary Stanley Matthews and reunited with Don Cabbage at Christie Park in July 1960. He starred as Morecambe won the Lancashire Combination title in consecutive seasons and Lancashire Combination Cup in 1964-65. Scoring 121 goals in 292 games for the Shrimps, he joined Lancaster in February 1967. He died in November 2023.

IAN WHITEHEAD

Inside-left Ian Whitehead starred as Morecambe won the Lancashire Combination title in 1961-62 and 1962-63. Previously with Preston, he failed to secure a first-team slot and moved to Christie Park in July 1960. He was a prolific goalscorer for the reserves in 1960-61, succeeding Jimmy Baxter in attack the following season as Morecambe reached the FA Cup third round and leading marksman as they won the Lancashire Junior Cup in 1962-63. Moving to Horwich RMI in October 1963, he rejoined Morecambe under new manager Ken Waterhouse in August 1965 and netted 116 goals in 123 games for the Shrimps.

ARNOLD TIMMINS

Versatile inside-forward Arnold Timmins was top scorer as Morecambe won the Lancashire Combination title in 1966-67 and 1967-68. Initially with Lowca, he joined Workington in September 1960 and scored on his League debut at Wrexham in April 1961. He featured in their 1963-64 promotion campaign, moving to Christie Park in July 1964. Scoring eight goals in Morecambe's record 14-0 win over Rossendale United in September 1967, he netted 133 times in 274 games overall for the Shrimps prior to joining Chorley in July 1970. He later played in the Preston & District League and resided in Chorley until his death in May 1994.

KEITH GALLEY

Striker Keith Galley was leading marksman as Morecambe won the FA Trophy in 1973-74. He made his first-team debut at Bangor City in April 1973 and netted four times in the same fixture in January 1974. Moving to Southport in December 1976, he topped their goalscoring charts that season and joined Telford United in July 1977. He briefly returned to Morecambe in March 1978, then played for Netherfield and Macclesfield prior to rejoining the Shrimps again in December 1981. After another spell at Netherfield, he returned to Morecambe for a fourth period in February 1989, scoring 126 goals in 435 games overall.

JOHN COLEMAN

Striker John Coleman was leading marksman as Morecambe won promotion to the Conference in 1994-95. Initially with Kirkby Town, he had spells with Burscough, Marine, Southport, Runcorn, Macclesfield, Rhyl and Witton before moving to Christie Park in August 1990. He was top scorer in the Northern Premier League three times with the Shrimps and scored in 13 successive games during the 1994-95 campaign. Netting 201 goals in 292 games for Morecambe, he joined Lancaster City in March 1996 and has since managed Ashton United, Accrington Stanley, Rochdale, Southport, Accrington again and Waterford.

JIM McCLUSKIE

Big striker Jim McCluskie formed a lethal partnership with John Coleman as Morecambe won promotion to the Conference in 1994-95. Signing professional for Rochdale in July 1984, he played in Jersey, then for Mossley and Hyde before joining Witton Albion in January 1991. He helped clinch the Northern Premier League title, then reach the FA Trophy final in 1992. After spells at Mossley and Accrington Stanley, he moved to Morecambe in August 1993. He was leading marksman in 1993-94 and netted 99 goals in 193 games prior to rejoining Accrington in July 1997, then played for Chorley before managing Rossendale.

JOHN NORMAN

Striker John Norman topped Morecambe's goalscoring charts on three occasions. Signing professional for Tranmere Rovers in February 1990, he moved via Heswall to Bury in August 1992. He had a spell with Mold before joining Morecambe in July 1994 and helped twice win the Lancashire Cup. Moving to Hednesford in May 1999, he returned to Christie Park in March 2000 and starred as the Shrimps reached the FA Cup third round in 2000-01. He netted 112 goals in 336 games overall prior to joining Burscough in July 2002. Featuring in their 2003 FA Trophy final triumph, he later played for Vauxhall Motors.

Wood staged a spirited second-half comeback to secure a dramatic 4-3 victory over Sutton United in a pulsating contest at Gander Green Lane.

Wood made a bright start and took the lead through Jeff King's composed finish, but Sutton responded strongly. Jayden Harris levelled from close range before Lewis Simper struck a fierce drive from a cleverly worked free-kick to give the hosts a half-time advantage.

After the break, Luke Garrard's men raised their intensity, pressing higher and creating more chances. Their efforts paid off when Abdul Abdulmalik, a constant threat, found space in the box and calmly slotted home the equaliser midway through the half. The game tilted further when substitute Lewis Richardson was brought down in the penalty area, allowing Zak Brunt to coolly convert from the spot. In stoppage time, Erico Sousa finished a slick move involving Richardson and Matt Rush. Sutton's Edon Pruti netted a stunning 35-yard strike, but Wood held on.

CLUB NEWS

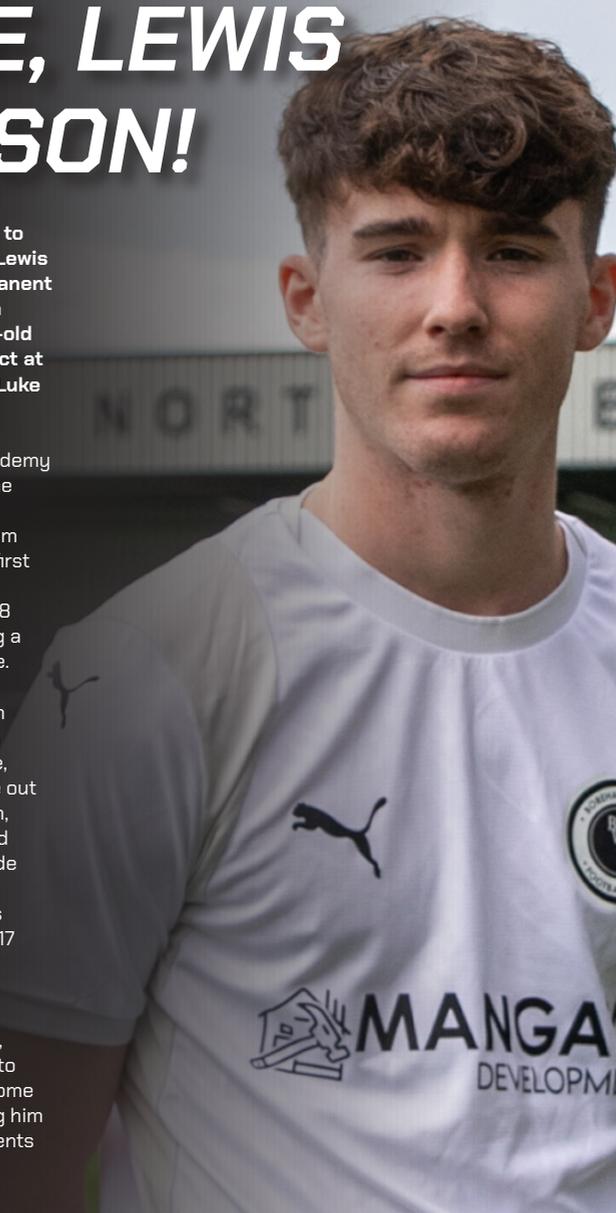

WELCOME, LEWIS RICHARDSON!

Boreham Wood Football Club are delighted to announce the signing of talented forward Lewis Richardson, who joins the Wood on a permanent basis following his summer departure from Premier League side Burnley. The 22-year-old has put pen to paper on a two-year contract at Meadow Park and will wear number 20 for Luke Garrard's side.

Richardson developed through Burnley's academy and made history in February of 2021 when he became the Claret's' youngest-ever Premier League debutant, featuring against Tottenham Hotspur at just 18 years and 21 days old. He first trialled with the club aged eight, announcing himself in style with five goals on his under-18 debut against Crewe Alexandra before hitting a hat-trick for the under-23's against Rochdale.

After signing his first professional contract in 2020, Richardson was regularly involved with Burnley's first-team setup under Sean Dyche, while also gaining valuable senior experience out on loan. He enjoyed spells with Grimsby Town, where he scored twice in 15 appearances, and more recently with fellow National League side York City, netting four in 13 National League appearances. Internationally, Richardson has represented England at under-16 and under-17 level, scoring against Moldova and Russia.

A sharp and intelligent forward with natural finishing instincts, Richardson brings energy, technical quality, and more attacking threat to Luke Garrard's squad. We are thrilled to welcome Lewis to the Wood and look forward to seeing him in black and white at the Mangata Developments Stadium Meadow Park!

Wood were left frustrated after dominating Hartlepool United but failing to break the deadlock in a goalless draw at the Suit Direct Stadium.

The visitors created a string of first-half chances, with Luke Norris, Matt Rush and Abdul Abdulmalik all testing the home defence, but were denied by goalkeeper Harvey Cartwright and some wasteful finishing. The game swung further in Wood's favour early in the second half when Pools defender Max Kouogun was sent off for bringing down Norris.

Despite relentless pressure, Wood's decision-making in the final third let them down, while substitutes Zak Brunt and Junior Dixon were unable to find a breakthrough against a resilient Hartlepool backline. In the closing minutes, Nathan Ashmore was called into action to keep out Besart Topallaj as the hosts briefly threatened. Luke Garrard's side may have taken a point beforehand, but their failure to exploit the extra man left them disappointed.

YORK CITY TURN TO MAYNARD

York City have appointed former Notts County boss Stuart Maynard as their new manager, replacing Adam Hinshelwood, who was sacked just four games into the season.

The 44-year-old, who guided Notts into last season's League Two play-offs, takes charge of a Minstermen side tipped for National League promotion. Maynard said York's vision "aligns with my goals to make the club successful."

He will be assisted by Joao Alves, with Gary Elphick staying on staff. York, unbeaten so far, hope Maynard can deliver a long-awaited return to the EFL.

ASKEY SLAMS 'CRIMINAL' EQUALISER

Truro City boss John Askey blasted his side's defending after conceding a stoppage-time penalty in a 2-2 draw with nine-man Aldershot Town.

James Henry's 97th-minute spot-kick cancelled out goals from Ryan Law and Tyler Harvey, denying Truro a vital National League win. Despite Aldershot losing Marcus Dewhurst and Cameron Hargreaves to red cards, Truro failed to hold on.

Askey labelled the lapse "criminal" and criticised refereeing decisions, including a denied penalty for Dom Johnson-Fisher. The result leaves promoted Truro with four points from two games after five straight defeats.

INJURY BLOW FOR THE CARDINALS

Woking striker Sam Ashford has been sidelined after breaking his collarbone during Wednesday's 1-1 National League draw at Halifax Town.

The 28-year-old forward, signed from Wealdstone in March, was forced off in the 63rd minute before Halifax equalised through Josh Hmami's stoppage-time penalty, cancelling out Harry Beautyman's opener. Woking confirmed Ashford has been discharged from hospital but requires further treatment and recovery time.

Having scored once in 12 appearances for the Cards, Ashford will miss upcoming fixtures, starting with Saturday's home clash against Gateshead.

WELCOME, FINLAY HERRICK!

Boreham Wood Football Club are delighted to announce the signing of young, promising goalkeeper Finlay Herrick, who joins the Wood on loan from Premier League side West Ham United until the end of the season. During his stay in WD6, Herrick will wear the number 22.

Herrick has been with the Hammers since the age of six, rising through the ranks at Chadwell Heath before signing his first professional contract ahead of the 2023/24 campaign. A standout performer for West Ham's academy sides, he was a key figure in their hugely successful 2022/23 season, keeping three clean sheets in eight appearances as Kevin Keen's under-18s secured both the FA Youth Cup and the U18 Premier League South title.

The talented shot-stopper continued his progression in 2023/24, making 23 appearances for the West Ham U18s and earning further international recognition with England, representing the Young Lions at U18 level against France and Germany. In the 2024/25 campaign, his first full season with West Ham's U21s, Herrick was the only goalkeeper nominated for Premier League 2 Player of the Season, recording the most clean sheets in the division with seven. Herrick has also earned five England U19 caps, keeping two clean sheets in UEFA European qualifiers.

A commanding and highly rated young goalkeeper, Herrick adds further quality, depth and presence between the sticks for Luke Garrard's side. We are thrilled to welcome Finlay to Boreham Wood Football Club and look forward to seeing him in action at the Mangata Developments Stadium Meadow Park!
